

Custom Manifold Filter Assemblies

Manifold Filter Assemblies allow for filtration of multiple fluids with one filter unit. Multiple filter elements and filter bowls can be designed into one filter head for space savings and ease of element change-out for a multifluid system. Filter manifolds can also be directly installed in existing manifold cavities which removes the need for mounting hardware and plumbing connections.

Custom applications have included subsea blowout preventers, electric control boxes filtering dielectric fluid & compressed natural gas.

